

DICON-DASON Fall 2017 Educational Symposium
 Healthcare Epidemiology—Current Trends, Current Threats, and Future Solutions
 Friday, November 3, 2017
 Grandover Resort & Conference Center

- 7:45-8:30 am Registration and Continental Breakfast
- 8:30-8:45 am Welcome, Program Overview, Network Updates—Dev Anderson, MD, MPH
- 8:45-9:45 am Keynote Speaker: CRE Prevention
Mary Hayden, MD, Professor of Internal Medicine and Pathology, Director of Clinical Microbiology, Rush University Medical Center
- 9:45-10:00 am BREAK
- 10:00-11:30 am Keynote Speaker: Engaging Surgeons in Antimicrobial Stewardship and Infection Prevention
Daniel Raymond, MD, Thoracic Surgeon in the Department of Thoracic and Cardiovascular Surgery, in the Sydell and Arnold Miller Family Heart & Vascular Institute at Cleveland Clinic
- 11:30 am-12:30 pm Lunch

	Infection Prevention Breakout		Antimicrobial Stewardship Breakout
12:30-1:00 pm	Impact of Re-baselining on SIRS Chris Hostler, MD	12:30-1:30 pm	DASON Case Studies (3 presentations from Member sites) and Discussion Moderator: Rebekah Moehring, MD, MPH
1:00-2:30 pm	How to be problem-solver and overcome challenges in infection control. (presentations from member sites) Moderator: Dan Sexton, MD	1:30-2:30 pm	Surviving Your Survey: Recent CMS/TJC Experience-Roundtable Discussion led by Libby Dodds-Ashley, PharmD, MHS

- 2:30-2:45 pm BREAK
- 2:45-3:15 pm DICON/DASON research topics
Art Baker, MD, MPH, Rebekah Moehring, MD, MPH, and Dev Anderson, MD, MPH
- 3:15-3:30 pm Closing Comments with Questions and Answer Session
Deverick Anderson, MD, MPH and Daniel Sexton, MD